Dedication

It is in a proud and reflective mood that we, the Senior Class of 1966, pause to honor a teacher whose concern and devotion for us has made our high school years more purposeful, for this person has truly recognized the high responsibility and joy of teaching. Giving of herself has in no way diminished her supply of helpfulness, imagination, and concern. Through her smile and ready wit, we see her joy in life and people. Hoping somehow to partially pay her for the faith she has shown in us, the Senior Class of 1966 wishes to dedicate this edition of the HOURGLASS to

MRS. BEULAH TEW POPE

Dr. Norwood Earl Jones

Principal

Dear Seniors:

If, in your high school education, you have acquired a minium of fundamental knowledge and skills -- skill in handling source materials, ability to think and act in the presence of unprecedented situations, and an ethical attitude toward the use of your knowledge and skills -- you have acquired the basic education necessary for a fair start in life.

You are afforded the high privilege of living during one of the great times in history, but with privilege comes responsibility. Let me put it like this, with sober, startling frankness and clarity: It may be that God has entrusted you personally and individually with a particular mission to perform. It may make a difference to all eternity what you do!

In the differing days ahead for each of you there will be problems. Let no one try to tell you that life is meant to be easy. Life is not easy, and it is not perfectly ordered.

Every man is the trustee of the life entrusted to him. How he discharges this personal trust is his test. It is possible for many of you to go through life without ever realizing that you are undergoing a test, without recognizing your responsibilities.

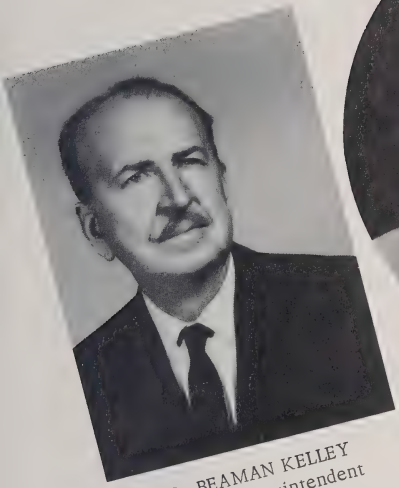

Through the way you live your lives, you can make a contribution to mankind's eternal progress. It may not be spectacular, but it counts. The efforts you make to live more purposefully, more nobly, entitle you to feel that in some measure at least you are discharging honorably the responsibility entrusted to you. The miracle or the power that elevates the few is to be found in their industry, application, and perseverance under the inner prompting of a brave and determined spirit.

Sincerely yours,

Norwood E. Jones

The first section of the 1966 HOUR-GLASS is devoted to you, our class-mates and friends. For it was you that made our years at EHS so memorable. It is because of you that we recall so fondly that big party... cramming for exams... the big game. For it is people, not the place or occasion, that make events so memorable. To you we, the Seniors of 1966, leave the privilege and obligation of striving and working at Erwin High School. You shall take our place, and perhaps we shall soon be forgotten. But you, whose lives have been so closely woven with ours for four years, will long be remembered.

Each picture on the following pages will have an individual meaning to each of you. Perhaps the memories will fade as these pages are thumbed through year after year. But the joy and enrichment of being a member of Erwin High School student body can never diminish.

Parents' Page

During our twelve years at Erwin School, we have obtained sparkling memories of places, events - but most of all, people. Ironically, it is seldom that we express orally our gratitude to the persons who have strived so diligently to make our school days an endearing memory. As we come to the end of our senior year, we cling to these memories. We also suddenly realize the boundless debt we owe to our parents, whose love, faith, and concern have enabled us to believe in ourselves and our ability to contribute to society. Our joy over triumphs and distress over defeats have only been equaled by that of our parents. Without their concern, we should never have learned the supreme lesson of love and faith outside ourselves.

We realize that the only means of truly expressing thankfulness to our parents is to live worthy of the love they have fostered for us. As a beginning, the seniors of 1966 dedicate this page of the HOURGLASS to our parents and guardians.

Class History

This spring we, the Senior Class of 1966, will receive our long-awaited diplomas. This will be an exciting and thought-provoking occasion, when we shall recall fading memories of our days at Erwin High School.

Those memories of our Freshman year are perhaps difficult to recall, as we think of the many varied experiences that have crowded our memory. We elected the following officers to lead us through this year of strange faces and unfamiliar classes: Kenneth Price, President; Billy Graham, Vice-president; Shirley Stephenson, Secretary; J.W. Aman, Sergeant-at-Arms. Several Freshman boys were reminded of their "inferior" rank as they were initiated into the Key Club. Many of our class brought us recognition through participation in various sports. We learned much, or thought we did, for we knew little of the lessons to come.

Massacred frogs, Beta Club tapping, "les francais" memories of our Sophomore year. As more mature citizens of EHS, we elected these capable leaders: Juvone Carroll, President; Frederick Thomas, Vice-president; Shirley Stephenson, Secretary; Carolyn Byrd, Treasurer; J.W. Aman, Sergeant-at-Arms. Nineteen members of our class wore a relieved smile as they were tapped into the Beta Club. Elaine West was elected treasurer of the Student Council. Kenneth Price distinguished our class by being the only Sophomore named to the All-Conference football team. Anna Blowers was selected to represent our class in the Dunn Christmas Parade. Carolyn Byrd received the French Award and Biology Award. Dianna Bennett also added spark to our cheerleaders by joining the squad.

Thoughts of the Prom, HI-LITE, and finally being upperclassmen filled our minds as we became Juniors. Our first step in making our Junior year unforgettable was the election of the following officers: Kenneth Price, President; Henry Johnson, Vice-President; Carolyn Byrd, Secretary; Elaine West, Treasurer; Ralph Lucas, Sergeant-at-Arms. With the help of Mrs. Sarah Hudson, known affectionately as "Ma", and our co-editors, Carolyn Byrd and Danny Ralph, the Erwin HI-LITE was a big success. Two of our number were officers of the Student Council: Kenneth Price, Vice-president; Kaye Lasater, Secretary. Other members of our class assumed positions of leadership in various clubs. "Pick-a-Dilly", the Junior play concerning the marriage of three sisters, starred Jane Odom and Kenneth Price. The play, directed by Miss Judy Jackson was enjoyed by everyone, especially the actresses and actors. Marshals for the year were as follows: Carolyn Byrd, Chief, Elaine West, Dwight Stephens, Marcia Stewart, Ralph Lucas, Kaye Lasater, Everette Ryals, Frederick Thomas, and Barbara Houston. Carolyn Byrd received the History Award, and Sue Faircloth won the Home Economics Award for Proficiency. Kenneth Price was again selected to the All-Conference football team. The climax of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom, constructed around the theme of "Stardust." On the night of May 7, a picture of enchantment composed of glittering stars, soft lights, and happy faces greeted all visitors to Erwin Gymnasium.

Class rings, deadlines, graduation, "last year", old friends thoughts that filled our minds as we began our Senior year. We also entered our Senior year with the purpose of making it the best ever for ourselves and our school. We opened this year with the selection of the following officers: J.W. Aman, President; Dwight Stephens, Vice-president; Brenda Blackman, Secretary; Elaine West, Treasurer; Henry Johnson, Sergeant-at-Arms. Co-editors of the HOURGLASS were Carolyn Byrd and Danny Ralph. Elaine West was chosen to receive the DAR award. Two of our class nominated for the Morehead Scholarship were Frederick Thomas and Ralph Lucas. Being Seniors, we accepted the responsibility of leadership in school clubs. Elected by the entire student body, Ralph Lucas served as president of the Student Council. Other important offices held by Seniors were the following: Dwight Stephens, President of the Beta Club; Kenneth Price, President of the Key Club; Cheryl Williamson, President of the FBLA; Sue Faircloth, president of the FHA; Kaye Lasater, President of the Math and Science Club. Ralph Lucas and Kenneth Price were co-captains of the winning football team. Dianna Bennett became Chief-Cheerleader.

It seems hardly possible that four years of our lives could have passed so swiftly, but they have given us more than memories, wonderful though they are. They have given us the knowledge, ability, and confidence to make the remainder of our lives as meaningful as these last four years.

City of Erwin

We, the Senior Class of 1966, being of sound body, morally, physically and mentally; do hereby make known and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Article I

To our Parents: We leave our deepest love and appreciation for making our education possible.

Article II

To the Faculty: We leave our sincere gratitude for the effort they have made to give us advice and knowledge.

Article III

To Dr. Jones: We leave our deepest appreciation for the leadership and interest he has shown to each of us.

Article IV

To Our Sponsors: Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Scurlock, and Mrs. Osborne, we leave our sincere gratitude for the patience, understanding, and encouragement in making our Senior year at Erwin High School the happiest ever.

Article V

To the Juniors: We leave all our Senior privileges: Front row seats in chapel, class rings, and all our best wishes for the best of everything.

Article VI

BONNIE BENNETT, GENNY MORGAN, and FRANCES PATE leave their ability to create excitement to Linda Pope and Bonnie Autry. "Why should the devil have all the fun?"

HERBIE DENNIS leaves his ability to avoid any one girl to Billy Harrington. "Whistle and they come running."

ELAINE WEST, BARBARA HOUSTON, and WILMA DANIELS will their ability to go steady to Janice Brown and Rae Odom. "Till death do us part."

JERRY HOBSON, JACK BYRD, and PHIL WHITE leave their height to Michael Walters. "Not to the top, but climbing."

CAROLYN BYRD wills her scholastic ability and absent-minded ways to Cathy Byrd and Hope Thornton. "The sky's the limit."

KENNETH PRICE and BILL HORNE leave their ability to play football to Danny Grady and Danny Jakeman. "If you see me coming, better step aside."

GEORGE ELDERBAUM and EVERETTE RYALS leave their dependability to Michael Strickland, Donald Turner, and Glenn Pope. "You can depend on me."

MURIEL PARKER, BECKY THOMAS, and CARA DORMAN leave their sincere ways to Janice Norris and Ruth Horne. "Honesty is the best policy."

ANNA BLOWERS and SHIRLEY STEPHENSON leave their ability to do everything together to Brenda Whittington and Janet House. "Two heads are better than one."

DWIGHT STEPHENS, JUVONE CARROLL, and KENNETH STONE leave their way with the women to Dwight West, Bill Bennett, and Larry Hobson. "All the world loves a lover."

GEORGE POPE, LARRY WADE, MARVIN JACKSON, and THOMAS McDONALD will their driving ability to Mickey Phillips and Henry Faircloth. "I'm behind the wheel, and I have control."

SUE FAIRCLOTH, ESTHER AVERY, and PHYLLIS AVERY leave their pleasant smiles to Ann Lucas, Jo Anne Moore, and Elizabeth Stone. "Smile and the Whole world smiles with you."

EDNA SEASE and DOLORES HORTON leave their way with the boys to Jacona Jackson, Lillian Stewart, and Jeanette Horne. "I have a heart with room for every boy."

LINDA RAYNOR, GLENDA BEASLEY, and MARCIA STEWART leave their neat appearance to Lynn Bethune and Brenda Barefoot. "They look as if they walked straight out of a bandbox."

JANE ODOM leaves her ability to stay unattached to Sondra Beasley. "Beauty draws more than the beast."

PHYLLIS DUQUETTE and MARY GRADY leave their polite ways to Ann Hall, Vicki Carlisle, and Linda Wade. "I'm the peak of courtesy."

HARRIET NORRIS and SAMMY BARBOUR leave their petite figures to Edith Lockamy and Patsy Ryals. "Little people have big hearts."

HENRY JOHNSON and C.J. JOHNSON leave their ability to make others laugh to Joey Denning, Paul Ennis, and Dallas Blackman. "All the world loves a clown."

BRENDA HOLLINGSWORTH wills her ability to obtain a diamond to Janice Wood. "Diamonds are a girl's best friend."

LARRY DAVIS, SAMMY DAVIS, and PHIL JOHNSON leave their ability to always be late to Ricky West, Wayne Capps, and Randy Byrd. "So little time; so much to do."

MICHAEL JOHNSON leaves his witty remarks to be used by Wayne Royals and Ray Parker. "Life to me is just a comedy."

DICKIE GUY leaves his ability to tell jokes to Harry Wade. "He who lives without folly is unwise."

PAT MOORE, JEAN WADE, and FAYE THORNTON leave their various ways to Elaine McLamb, Valarie Barbour, and Margaret Faircloth. "Variety is the spice of life."

RONNIE HALL, DENNIS JONES, and CLIFTON HOLLAND leave their ability to make money to Junior Williford and Kenneth Glover. "A penny saved is a penny earned."

LAURA BEARD and CHERYL WILLIAMSON will their ability to love that one certain boy to Kathy Ray, Cindy Ralph, and Wanda Turnage. "First comes love, then comes marriage."

GLENN AVERY, ROBERT DAWKINS, and JERRY FAIRCLOTH leave their love for cars to Raymond King and Larry Faircloth. "You are uneasy, you never rode with me."

BRENDA CARLISLE and BRENDA BLACKMAN leave their lovable personalities to Doris Lee. "Eat, drink, and be merry."

DANNY RALPH wills his ability to succeed in the world to Bruce Gomedella. "Sharp's the word for them."

JUDY FANN and TERESA WEAVER will their care-free ways to Dale Holt and Linda Eason. "Roll on, old world, and I'll roll with you."

JOYCE BYRD, RUBY MURFEE, and JOYCE BEVERLY leave their ability for a happy marriage to whoever is lucky enough. "My man is as true as steel."

CARRIE LEE PRICE, CAROLYN REAVES, and BRENDA NORRIS leave their quiet manners to Geneva McNeill and Linda McDonald. "It's better to be seen than heard."

M.C. HOLLAND, LARRY JOHNSON, and MIKE PARRISH leave their gentlemanly-like manners to Lynwood Jernigan and Si Harrington. "Ladies love gentlemen."

J.W. AMAN and BILLY GRAHAM leave their mysterious ways to Tag Wade and Barry Horne. "What a delight a lively life affords."

TONY GODWIN and TOMMY MIRIELLO leave their determination to Richard Crawford and George Coleman. "Anything worth having doesn't come easy."

LARRY EARL WOOD and JIMMY TOMOSUNAS will their easy-going ways to Donald Jones and Danny Beasley. "Whatever he attempted, he performed."

RALPH LUCAS and FRED THOMAS leave their intelligence to Billy Frazier and Bing Sizemore. "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing."

SUE JONES and KAYE LASATER leave their talents to be used by Joyce Turnage. "She was a wonder--she was natural."

CLIFTON RYALS, CHARLES PARKER, and CHARLES JOHNSON leave their ability to be attentive in class to Ronald Tart, Jackie Thornton, and Willie Avery. "Attention makes the genius."

JOSEPH PARNELL, LARRY WAYNE WOOD, and JOHNNY PARKER leave their friendly ways to James Bradley, Rodney Giles, and Jerry Williford. "The way to make a friend is to be one."

JAMES SMITH, R.A. MESSER, and THOMAS NORRIS leave their get-up-and-go spirit to anyone who has the energy. "He that has plenty of pepper will pepper his own cabbage."

As for me, I leave all my best wishes and hopes that God will continue to smile on you.

Time: October, 1976
Place: Erwin Football Game
Erwin versus Barton
Score: At half-time--Erwin 13 Barton 13

After a most thrilling first half, the Erwin Stadium, filled to the brim, comes alive as the band marches to the field. Everyone stands to his feet except one lonely person, who strolls silently to the concession stand. Suddenly a rush of chilling wind whips his trench coat closer. He moves slowly across the littered field.

As he reaches the concession stand, he flips a quarter on the counter which ironically spins around. Instead of stopping flat, it stands straight up on its edge with no support. Within the next instant the entire field is covered by a mystical cloud of fog which seems to sweep down and take everyone with it, except the lone stranger.

Glancing around, he sees a tattered banner proclaiming, "Welcome home, Seniors of 1966," over a reserved section of seats. He smiles, nodding his head as if to say, "Boy, what great times we had!" Suddenly a gust of wind deposits a program at his feet. Looking closer, he sees the names and occupations of all the Seniors of 1966 listed. Eager to see if they had made use of the old patterns or if new patterns had been constructed, he sits down and is soon absorbed in the torn bit of paper.

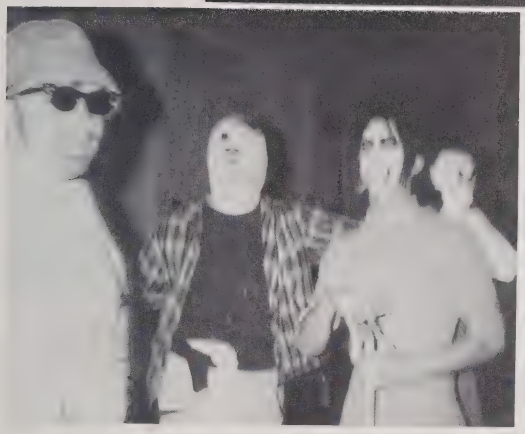

The paper contained the following list:

R.A. Messer and Henry Johnson - - Owners of R.J. Reynold's Tobacco Company
Faye Thornton and J.W. Aman - - Professional florists
Glenn Avery, Shirley Stephenson, Marvin Jackson, and Thomas Norris - - Race car drivers at Daytona
Charles Parker, Carolyn Reaves, and Jimmy Tomosunas - - Car salesmen
Linda Raynor, Barbara Houston, and Dolores Horton - - Professional models
C.J. Johnson, Genny Morgan, and Bonnie Bennett - - Disc - jockeys
Jane Odom and Ruby Murfee - - Opera singers
Danny Ralph, Fred Thomas, and Everette Ryals - - Insurance agents
George Elderbaum and Ralph Lucas - - Lawyers
Tony Godwin, Billy Graham, Jack Byrd, and Kenneth Price - - Professional football players
Dianna Bennett, Sammy Barbour, and Cheryl Williamson - - Secretaries for lawyer husbands
Brenda Hollingsworth, Joyce Byrd, and Joyce Beverley - - Married and happy
Thomas McDonald and Larry Wade - - Greyhound bus drivers
Bill Horne, Herbert Dennis, and Larry Johnson - - Football coaches for Washington Redskins
Ronnie Hall, Dennis Jones, and Clifton Holland - - Owners of supermarkets
Michael Johnson, Larry E. Wood, and Larry W. Wood - - Auto Mechanics
Jerry Hobson and Dickie Guy - - Actors
M.C. Holland, Judy Fann, and Wilma Daniels - - School teachers
Glenda Beasley, Laura Beard, Anna Blowers, and Brenda Blackman - - Movie Stars
Jerry Faircloth, Larry Davis, Sammy Davis, and Robert Dawkins - - Auto designers
Cara Lee Dorman, Sue Faircloth, and Mary Grady - - Commercial Artists
JuVone Carroll and Johnny Parker - - Weight-lifters
Phyllis Duquette and Esther Avery - - Missionaries
Carolyn Byrd, Carrie Lee Price, and Dwight Stephens - - Chemists
Elaine West, and Brenda Carlisle - - Models
Phil White, Phil Johnson, and Charles Johnson - - Big game hunters
Kaye Lasater and Joseph Parnell - - Artists
Brenda Norris, Phyllis Avery, and Pat Moore - - Clothes designers
George Pope and Sue Jones - - Employees of Lawrence Welk
Harriet Norris, Edna Sease, and Marcia Stewart - - Telephone operators
Clifton Ryals, Kenneth Stone, Tom Miriello, and James Smith - - Movie directors
Muriel Parker and Teresa Weaver - - Professional dancers
Frances Pate, Becky Thomas, and Jean Wade - - Newspaper reporters

Suddenly the coin fell, and the dream vanished as quickly as it had appeared. As the ballgame resumed, he could only hope to see everyone's dreams and hopes come true - whether it be in the near future, or in the mystical twilight.

"The meeting will now come to order!" How many times have we listened to this familiar opening as we began another meeting in the club room, auditorium, or classroom? The leadership developed and responsibility fulfilled in school organizations is as important, if not more, than classroom studies. For if we could not work together for a common purpose, all of our knowledge of math, science, or social studies would not benefit us or our society.

Organi

Remember the Key Club LUNCHEON meetings . . . Student Council elections . . . HI-LITE deadlines . . . waiting nervously to be tapped into the Beta Club . . . selling football programs for the FBLA in arctic weather . . . working frantically to remain in the Beta Club . . . FHA parties . . . Language Club Christmas carols . . . yearly Monogram Club meetings . . . and of course, your hardworking HOURGLASS Staff? Remember?

zations

It is in clubs and organizations that we apply the material learned in books and classrooms. This is the way we solve problems and get things done. Club membership affords us friends, hard work, fun, and memories. These memories will remain with us, for they have developed us into well-rounded individuals ready to tackle and solve problems together. It is the wish of the HOURGLASS Staff that the following pages will recall to your mind pleasant memories of friends projects accomplished, and lessons learned.

Foiled Again

Time passes and people forget.
The same will come true with the Seniors now leaving EHS and the ones to follow. In future years we can pick up our annual and recall the frilly, decorative, exciting, and memorable times we enjoyed in our past years. Certain events will surely be outstanding to us and upon reading about and seeing them in our yearbook, we transport ourselves into a land of "make believe and memories."

Feat

Homecoming will most surely be outstanding in our memory with its implications of happiness. Frills and Lace...A Boy and a Girl...all remind us of the Junior - Senior Prom. Most certainly the stars fell and entered the eyes and hearts of every couple at our "Stardust." Our life is filled with memories of the past just meant to be recalled over and over again. Memories linger on and on.....

Stardust

necoming

"Go! Go!
Go! Go!"
Soon the cheer becomes too rapid and fervent to repeat. The intense moment is broken by a successful score. Victory! This is victory for the player, spectator, coach, school, and community. The player wins confidence and pride, as well as self-respect for a job well done. And the coach gains an added desire to win again! The school, spectator, and community have won too, for without their support, the victory would have been less rewarding and possible.

Spo

For an hour or two, hundreds of people are united in one effort. During the game, they have one purpose. So even if a hard-fought game is lost, the loss is only in the score. Nothing can be really lost when people work honestly for one end.

Determination, courage, and the ability to get up and try again are valuable traits learned in athletics that prepare us for life in all fields. It is the purpose of the HOURGLASS Staff in the following pages to bring memories of that victory... loss... cheer... sorrow... pride and accomplishment.

We see them watching us, timidly and happily. We know,
for it was not so long ago that we demure high school students enviously gazed at our elders and long-ed for the day we would be members of The Erwin High School student body. Now as the Seniors ponder graduation, perhaps we envy them. For we know of the achievement, fun, pride, and learning awaiting them.

Eleme

Perhaps these memories of early school days are harder to recall, but everyone remembers that special teacher ...getting lost at recess... marching in ruler-straight lines... that first-grade bully. Don't you?

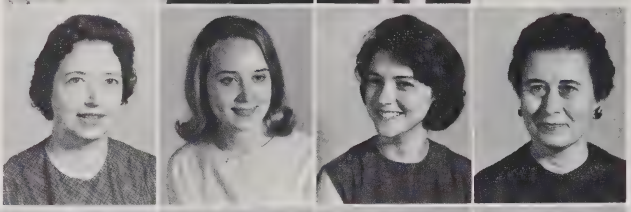

Time marches on, and we can never return to our childhood. But the memories aroused by the following pages of the HOURGLASS will provide a glimpse of almost-forgotten days.

This last section of the 1966 HOUR-GLASS is gratefully dedicated to those businesses and firms who have made our annual possible. We would like to give them our deepest thanks and hope that we have fulfilled their confidence in us.

Adverti

These businesses are as much a part of our memories as any other event in our years at Erwin High. They have contributed to our education greatly and our experience with them has proved invaluable. When you need a friend, these businesses are always available. Our success now and in the future may be partly contributed to them. For your continuing help, we thank you.

TEXTILE WORKERS UNION OF AMERICA

TWUA'S PURPOSE

To unite all workers within its jurisdiction in the United States and Canada in an industrial union for the following purposes:

--to improve their wages and hours of work, to increase their job security, to insure full employment and to better their working conditions.
--to advance their economic, social and cultural interests; to disseminate information, among them regarding economic, social, political and other matters affecting their welfare.
--to defend and extend their civil rights and liberties.
--to organize the unorganized workers,
--to establish peaceful and harmonious relations between the members and their employers through collective bargaining and to increase stability of the industry.
--to promote and support democracy and free trade unionism.
--to advance the interests of workers by advocating and endeavoring to secure legislation beneficial to them.
--to help build a better world for mankind.

Elaine,

It has been a pleasure knowing you and being a friend to you. I hope our friendship can last forever. We had some exciting times in our life. We have been in some mighty peculiar events in a short while. I have enjoyed them ever so much. What would we do mixed out Midway. If we had never met anyone from there, where would we be today. Although we been through a many up and downs with our mom from Sampson County. But we managed to get out of those down-devil events. Between the boys at Elvin and the two special guys at Midway we've managed to keep the ones we really want most in life.

I hope you and Otis Jr. will always be happy together and love and love forever. I know you two will make a perfect couple together. Maybe one of these days when we are older and things have changed where we are living with ____ + ____ in our own home, we can still have the fun we've had together once again.

What would we have done now if we had not met my one or only Winston and your one and only one, Otis. What would we he doing for our fun room. I don't know why everyone has tried to break us up and come between our loves. I do hope nothing will ever come between us.

Well here's wishing you and Otis the best of luck through out the future. May you always be happy together. I hope I understand and it will always remain secret, and in a few years maybe some thing wonderful will happen to both of us and soon day to you and Otis Jr. Bless and soon day. May God take care and be some. May God take care and bless you with all that life has to offer to a sweet and wonderful girl.

Good luck to you and yours.
